

Exploring the Body Score: A Comparative Analysis of Wine Richness and Weight

(Pargat Singh)

No. of Wines

675

No. of Wineries

384

Wines Type/Variety

21

Wines with body 5

210

Wines with body 4

378

Filter by Body

2

3

4

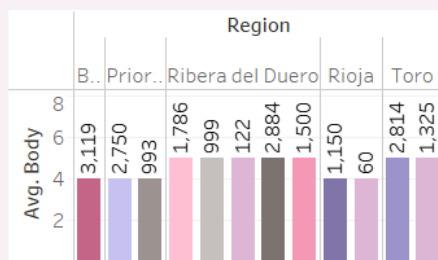

5

Five Wines with Average Body Score 5: Cuesta de Las Liebres, El Anejon, Pingus, Tinto, and Unico - full-bodied and highly rated. The other five with Average Body Score 4 - rich and full-bodied but slightly less intense.

Top 10 Wines by Average Body and Max Rating

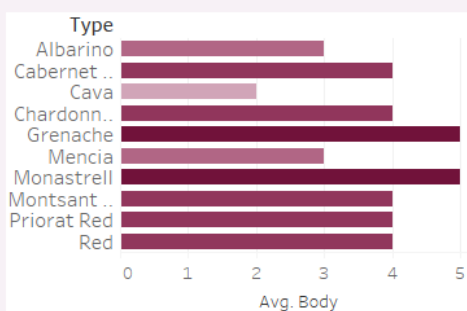

Top 10 Wines by Region, Average body and Maximum Price

Duero leads with 5 wines, including high-priced Unico. Toro and Bierzo have 2 wines each, both with body score 5. Priorato and Rioja have 2 wines each, with body score 4 and lower price range.

Red wines Monastrell and Grenache lead with a score of 5. Priorat Red, Montsant Red, Red, Chardonnay, and Cabernet Sauvignon share a score of 4. Albarino and Mencia have a lower score of 3, and Cava has the lowest score of 2.

Top 10 Wine Types by Average Body and Max Acidity

Top 10 Winery by Average Body and Maximum reviews

Perfect score 5 for body & high reviews: Pago de Carraovejas, Tinto Pesquera, Vega Sicilia, Pintia, Alion. La Rioja Alta & Abadia Retuerta have avg body 4 & high reviews. Marques de Riscal has avg body 3.9 and maximum reviews. TreeMap: size=max reviews, color=avg body.

To conclude, dashboard analyzes Body score in Spanish red wines. Top wines including Cuesta de Las Liebres, El Anejon, Pingus, Tinto, and Unico have a perfect body score of 5. Ribera del Duero leads with 5 wines in the top 10 by region, body score, and max price. Monastrell and Grenache lead the most acidic wine types with a score of 5. Pago de Carraovejas, Tinto Pesquera, Vega Sicilia, Pintia, Alion, La Rioja Alta, and Abadia Retuerta are top wineries by max reviews and high avg body score.